8 Any individual who it is alleged to have a previous serious or violent felony conviction, or a 9 weapons enhancement is alleged, bail will be set at the previous schedule.

10 An individual who was released from custody within the prior 60 days and has alleged to have 11 committed a new offense shall have bail set at the previous bail schedule for that offense.

12 Nothing in this order eliminates Penal Code 1269(c) for any individual the peace officer has 13 reasonable cause to believe the bail schedule is insufficient. If the officer wishes to follow that section,
14 the officer may contact dispatch to speak with a judicial officer and request that bail be set above 15 schedule.

16 Nothing in the Emergency Bail Schedule restricts the ability of the court to deny bail as 17 authorized by article I, section 12, or 28(f)(3) of the California Constitution.
